

BOBBY MAYNE TEACHES THE ART OF BOXING

BY MISAGH NOROUZI - January 21, 2017

Bobby Mayne

Boxing trainer Bobby Mayne has a knockout know-how to share.

Bobby Mayne is a boxing trainer, official and author out of Perth, Western Australia. He started boxing in 1979, starting with training in 1981 at the age of 14. A year later he earned a silver medal at the national competition. In 1983 he won the Junior Golden Gloves championship.

During the years in Australian army Mayne represented his unit winning numerous titles. He was honorably discharged. He then spent several years training and competing where he had an opportunity to spar a former WBC world featherweight champion, Bob Hodkinson. In addition Mayne has also trained at Gleason's Gym in New York.

Bobby Mayne returned to Australia in 1990. Ever since he has always been a boxing trainer with his "Boxrite" system of teaching. He has coached and assisted numerous fighters in Boxing, MMA and Muay Thai including Daniel "The Rock" Dawson.

Topping up the bill, in May 2009 Mayne has released the 250-page book "The Guide to the Sweet Science". He has recently posted several hand-written documents on his Instagram profile. He also shares multiple educational blocks out of the book on his Facebook page.

Lastly Bobby Mayne informed that he is now also available to conduct seminars and deliver his 40-year knowledge to the current generation of boxing.
